Following a successful pilot phase, we are excited to announce a second round of the CCOA European Multiplier Training Programme. This initiative aims to strengthen expertise, encourage cross-border collaboration, and build capacity in the fight against online antisemitism and hate speech across Europe. The programme offers a trusted environment for experts, policymakers, educators, and activists to share knowledge, address common challenges, and develop practical solutions to effectively combat these pressing issues.

Programme Overview:

The CCOA European Multiplier Training will take place over a three-month period, designed specifically for CCOA-affiliated members working in research, policy, education, and activism. The programme seeks to deepen participants' understanding of how online antisemitism manifests, exchange best practices, and help overcome the shared challenges faced in different European contexts.

Through expert-led training, peer exchanges, and access to practical toolkits, participants will gain the essential knowledge and skills needed to advance their work in countering online hate. This programme is intended to create a trusted environment where multipliers—those with the capacity to scale solutions—can connect with other professionals to collectively tackle the key challenges in policy, education, and research across Europe.

Key Topics Covered:

- Countering Antisemitism and Conspiracy Narratives
- Digital Resilience and Online Safety
- Community Mobilisation and Civic Responses
- Cross-Country Peer Exchange
- Insights from ISD's Global Team
- Strategic Policy Making for Countering Online Antisemitism
- Exchange on Learnings from Platform Engagement

Benefits of Participation:

By joining the CCOA European Multiplier Training Programme, participants will gain:

- Access to the CCOA Hub: Connect with a wide network of experts, researchers, and activists across Europe, all working to tackle antisemitism and hate speech online.
- Peer-to-Peer Exchange: Engage in cross-border discussions and share challenges, insights, and solutions with colleagues from different national contexts. This is a unique opportunity to learn how various countries in the CCOA network approach online antisemitism and discuss strategies to overcome common obstacles in policy, education, and research.
- Expert-Led Sessions: Benefit from direct access to leading experts in the field, including those from the ISD global team, who will offer practical tools and research-based strategies to strengthen your approach to combating antisemitism and hate speech online.
- Tools and Resources: Receive tailored frameworks, toolkits, and guides that will enhance your organisation's capacity to address online antisemitism effectively. These materials will also help you stay updated with the latest trends and challenges in the digital space.
- Networking and Visibility: As part of the CCOA Hub, you will be integrated into a broader European network of civil society organisations, policymakers, and experts. This will provide collaborative project opportunities, access to joint funding, and increased visibility for the important work your organisation is doing to combat antisemitism.

Who Can Apply?

The CCOA European Multiplier Training Programme is open to all CCOA-affiliated members engaged in research, policy, education, and activism. It is ideal for individuals who:

- Are eager to strengthen their expertise in addressing online antisemitism and hate speech (whether across policy, research, and education, or within one of these areas).
- Want to build stronger cross-border connections to effectively combat digital hate.
- Are committed to learning from peers and sharing best practices across different European countries.
- Aim to develop practical solutions for local and international challenges in addressing antisemitism online.
